Itinerary exposition

The tour is divided into 9 stages of which the first and the fifth day are provided exclusively walking routes to the view of Matera and Lecce, seven days include a bicycle tour traveling with an average of 60 km / day and only for a stretch there is a transfer by train. The roads are mostly secondary low traffic, some stretches medium traffic, some road in countryside traffic almost nonexistent. The fund is mostly asphalted, except for some dirt or gravel. The development is half with ascent and descent of mid-level and mid-downs in plain and light, the path is suitable for people who love biking trails and preferably trained.

Tour description

A fascinating journey to live most of the treasures of Puglia. Leave from the wonderful city of Matera Sassi to have been built literally in the tuff, the city is a World Heritage Site. We will continue to turn the area south-east of Bari and the Itria Valley in particular know the town of Alberobello is famous for its fascinating trulli, small conical houses are unique to their kind, even this city is Unesco heritage, will also visit the nearby Polignano a Mare with its terraces overlooking the sea and we will dive into the bowels of the earth for a great trip in the caves of Castellana, we will also be Locorotondo here and we will taste the local wines, especially the famous white Locorotondo, then head towards Cisternino and Ostuni called the White City for the whiteness of the walls. After this we will move in Salento by train to visit Lecce, Otranto and Gallipoli as well as all one series of small villages and places of natural interest.

You will make an unforgettable journey through the olive trees, meadows, vineyards and the sea on the sandy shores and cliffs, memories that will fix forever in your mind until next return.
